

STATE OF UTAH AND U.S. EPA'S
PETROLEUM BROWNFIELDS
2004 WORKSHOP
"RECYCLING ABANDONED GAS STATIONS"

This free one-day workshop presented by the Utah Department of Environmental Quality (UDEQ) and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency will give participants a better understanding of the potential for redevelopment at abandoned gas stations, or underutilized properties with petroleum-based contamination. The workshop may help create strategic partnerships with other stakeholders who are involved in these revitalization opportunities.

Course Outline

Wednesday, October 27

8:30 a.m.

-On-site registration and course material distribution

9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

-Overview of Petroleum Brownfields and the Grant Process

-Revitalization Case Studies and Regulatory Discussions

-Panel Discussions on Marketing Strategies

-Hands-on Problem Solving

Who Should Attend

Regulatory staff involved in petroleum cleanups, land owners, environmental consultants, real estate/economic developers, non-profit agencies and public stakeholders interested in expanding these unique opportunities. Space is limited to 100 participants, so register today!

Fees

Registration and course materials are all free to attendees.
